

SHIPPENSBURG MOBILE ESTATES COMMUNITY

POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR COMMUNITY LIVING

To promote a healthy and enjoyable living environment and to protect your investment in your home, certain policies and guidelines have been adopted to enhance through good upkeep the desirability of living in this manufactured home community. They are to encourage a friendly, clean and well-maintained community of which all can be proud.

Many of the guidelines established by the management are common sense items and deal with courteous behavior to your neighbors. So, in most cases, they should be second nature and require no extra effort to follow. Our objective is to maintain a highly regarded residential community with pleasant surroundings in which you can live with pride, dignity, safety and comfort.

A. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. Prior to entry to the community, all applications and forms must be completed with all information requested so that character and credit checks can be conducted to determine community and financial responsibility. Negative reports regarding character and credit or failure to complete forms completely and accurately may be reason for disapproval.
2. All homes to be placed in the community must be approved by Community management (Lessor) and in compliance with the Home Entrance Requirements of the community.
3. No more individuals than is suitable for the manufactured home of its particular size and design shall occupy manufactured homes. Community management (Lessor) reserves the right to limit rentals to two adults and their children per home.
4. The home shall not be occupied by any person other than those named in the Lease except for visitors. No home or premises shall be subleased or put in the possession of another party. It is required that all individuals named on the title must be a lessee on the lease and must live in the home. Current copy of the title may be required from time to time by management.
5. Visitors that are guests of Lessee in excess of fourteen (14) consecutive days or in excess of twenty-one (21) days per year are required to apply for community approval for living in the home. After review of criminal, background and/or financial checks in accordance with community procedures. Approval and listing on the lease may be granted if the additional applicant meets all requirements.
6. Community management's (Lessor's) representatives shall have the right to access and be permitted access to the home space and utilities for maintenance or inspection at all times. This does not include the inside of the home.

7. Fire extinguishers, smoke detectors and a fire escape plan are encouraged for your safety.
8. Community management (Lessor) will not be responsible for damage, injury or loss by accident, theft, fire, mischief or acts of God to either the property or person of Lessee or guests and Lessee is hereby notified that Lessee will assume all risk in such matters and should insure themselves and their property accordingly.
9. Lessee must continue to provide Community management (Lessor) with the current home mailing address, phone numbers, employment information, and other Lessee data as requested from time to time.
10. After providing lease termination/move-out notice, Lessee must notify Community management (Lessor) in writing three (3) days in advance of his or her intention to move the home. Lessee will pay all outstanding charges due to Community management (Lessor), obtain Community management's (Lessor's) release in writing and obtain required permits for movement of home, prior to attaching a tow vehicle.
11. Lessees may sell their homes without restriction as to purchaser. But if the purchaser desires to keep the home in the community, purchaser must comply with the entrance procedures and meet the requirements of residency. Community management (Lessor) will do its utmost to assist in a timely acceptance of the new Lessee. Any change of ownership of the home requires a new lease with all owners meeting the requirements of Resident status (i.e. ownership and a party to the lease.)
12. To be considered for action, all concerns/complaints, with the exception of emergencies, must be submitted in writing and signed by the Lessee. Forms and assistance are available at the office.
13. Community management (Lessor) reserves the right to, from time to time, amend or adopt policies, procedures or guidelines upon thirty days notice.
14. Payments are to be made by check or money order.
