

GUIDELINES FOR COMMUNITY LIVING

Welcome to our community! We hope that living here enhances your quality of life, and that of your neighbors. To achieve these goals, we have developed guidelines by which we all can live. Once again, welcome to our community.

A. OCCUPANTS.

1. The maximum number of permanent occupants in a home, including legal dependents, is four occupants, unless otherwise decreased by local ordinance.
2. All homes must be occupied by the homeowner or a family member of the homeowner, such as a parent, grandparent, or child of legal age (18+). One occupant must be 55 or older.
3. The community is intended for persons 55 years or older. However, this shall not prohibit the occupancy of a home by the spouse or cohabitant of a deceased resident who was 55 or older at the time of death or placed in a facility for the care of the elderly or the infirm on the advice of a medical doctor.
4. Only persons listed on a lessee's application may reside in the community. Additional adults desiring to reside in the home must apply for residency before beginning residency. Failure to do so may result in appropriate legal action to have the lessee and/or unapproved occupant removed from the community.
5. Temporary guests are permitted up to thirty (30) days. In the event of a family emergency, family members may stay for up to ninety (90) days with the written consent of community management. The number of persons staying in a home shall not exceed the safe and/or lawful limits for the home.

B. SUBLEASING AND SALE.

1. Lessees may not sublet their home, their lot, or any portion thereof.
2. Any lessee selling their home must notify community management in writing when the home is placed on the market. Please provide the name and address of the broker or listing agent.
3. Community management reserves the right to inspect any home when it has reasonable cause to believe it does not comply with standards of habitability set forth in these guidelines.
4. If the home is to remain in the community, the prospective buyer must complete an application for residency. Written approval of the buyer by community management is required before the sale of the home. Title to the home must be transferred to the new homeowner at the time of sale.
6. If the prospective buyer is approved but the home fails inspection, the existing lessee has thirty days after the initial inspection to correct any deficiencies, at the end of which time a second inspection will be conducted.

7. If a home is sold to a buyer or there is a change in ownership of the home without prior approval by community management, the sale or change in ownership is valid but the home will have to be removed from the community immediately.

C. REMOVING HOME FROM THE COMMUNITY.

1. Please notify community management as soon as possible when you plan to move. A minimum thirty days written notice is required.
2. All rent, fees, charges, or assessments owed must be paid prior to removing the home.
3. A removal permit from all applicable governmental authorities is required. Removal of homes is not permitted on Saturday, Sunday, or holidays.
4. Please use all reasonable care upon removing the home; the resident is responsible for any damage to common areas.

any services to be furnished or supplied by the owner. Residents are urged to obtain the necessary insurance against these contingencies.

10. Residents who intend to be temporarily absent from the home for more than thirty (30) days should give prior notice to community management and make appropriate arrangements for emergencies if their home is to be completely unoccupied.

11. A home destroyed or damaged beyond repair by reason of fire or other casualty must be removed from the community within fifteen (15) days of said casualty. Should insurance company personnel and/or adjusters require additional time to inspect the home (not to exceed seven (7) additional days), community management will give its consent. However, the lessee shall be responsible for any damage caused by the lessee or home occupants to the water line, including freezing of the supply water lines under the home. The lessee must also maintain the above ground portion of the sewer line that connects to the home. The sewer line must be watertight from the home outlet to the inlet in the ground.
